

Samet View Beach House

Quick Facts

Samet View Beach House is located 220 kilometers (135 miles) from Bangkok in Rayong on the East Coast of Thailand. This superb location is blessed with one of Thailand's most beautiful and secluded beaches.

The house is easily accessed by car, private bus, or ferry/speed boat from Koh Samet. The closest town in the area is Ban Phe (10km away) which is the main hub for ferries to Koh Samet. Ban Phe is a small fishing village town which has a good sized Tesco Lotus, a 7/11 and internet cafes.

The Area

Located approximately 220 km from Bangkok, Rayong province is well known for its pristine beaches stretching over 100km of coastline, the world famous Samet Island, scenic waterfalls and a host of other natural attractions.

The area is a major agricultural province known for fruit production, particularly pineapple, mangosteen, rambutans and durian – Thailand's great tasting national fruit. The main industry is fishing so seafood is plentiful and can be enjoyed at beachside restaurants as well as in the local villages.

The area is also home to a number of dive sites with excellent underwater ridges and masses of marine life.

The Beach

Rim Pae Beach is wonderfully child-friendly. With shallow water and limited tidal variations, the kids can play happily and safely in the shallows.

For the adults, long stretches of white sand, pristine blue water and total seclusion make Rim Pae beach a divine space to relax and unwind.
